For the 2006 General William E. DePuy Professional Military Writing Competition, Military Review seeks original essays on subjects of current concern to the U.S. Army. This contest is open to all. The Global War on Terror, evolving threats, force reform, insurgency/counterinsurgency, cultural awareness in military operations, tanks in urban combat, transitioning from combat to stability and support operations, ethical challenges in counterinsurgency, historical parallels to current operations, better ways to man the force-the possible topics are limitless. Winning papers will be carefully researched, analytically oriented critiques, proposals, or relevant case histories that show evidence of imaginative, even unconventional, thinking. Submissions should be 3,500 to 5,000 words long.

First prize is featured publication in the May-June 2006 edition of Military Review, a $500 honorarium, and a framed certificate. Second and third prizes offer publication in Military Review, a $250 honorarium, and a certificate. Honorable mention designees will be given special consideration for publication and certificates.
